

ACORNS AGE GROUP HEAD COACH.

It is the aim and objective of each age group head coach is to create an environment where all players may develop both as rugby players and individuals.

DUTIES INVOLVED.

- To manage and oversee the coach and player development within their age group, both boys and girls.
- To work closely with DoR Acorns and club coach coordinator (CCC) to identify the recruit assistant age group coaches and volunteers.
- To work with DoR and CCC to identify age group needs, coaching, playing, medical and equipment.
- Be responsible for planning of the age group programme and individual training sessions as identified in coaching strategy.
- To involve and lead assistant coaches in age group planning.
- To deliver well planned and engaging sessions assisted by other coaches and helpers.
- Be responsible with age group managers for the welfare of all the children in the group.
- To work closely with age group managers to make sure coaches, parents and players are aware of follow and adhere to RFU and club codes of conduct.
- To work closely with age group managers in communicating with parents and players.

TO LIAISE WITH.

- Assistant coaches.
- Age group manager.
- Coach coordinator.
- Welfare officer.
- Vice chairperson for age group.
- DoR.
- Acorns chairman.

RESPONSIBLE TO.

- DoR Acorns.
- Acorns committee.
- Main club DoR.
- Main committee.

ASSISTANT COACH

The aim of this role is to support and assist the age group head coach in creating an environment all players can develop as rugby players and individuals.

DUTIES INVOLVED.

- To assist head coach of your age group with player development within their age group, both girls and boys.
- Assist in age group planning both season and individual sessions.
- Assist in the identification of age group needs both playing and non playing.
- To assist in the delivery of well planned sessions.
- To take responsibility for individual sessions and sub units of squad (e.g. Half backs, front row.) and individual positional skills development.
- Make sure players and parents are aware of follow and adhere to RFU and club code of conduct.

TO LIAISE WITH.

- Head coach.
- Age group manager.
- Parents.
- Welfare officer.
- Vice chairperson.
- Coach coordinator.
- DoR Acorns.

RESPONSIBLE TO.

- Head coach.
- DoR Acorns.
- Acorns chairman.
- DoR main club.

Responsible to DoR Acorns; Head Age Group Coach and Acorns Welfare Officers

1. To assist Head Age Group Coach with player development within their Age Group; both Boys and Girls.
2. Assist in Age group planning both season and individual sessions.
3. Assist in the identification of age group needs both playing and non-playing.
4. To assist in delivery of well planned sessions.
5. To take responsibility for individual sessions and sub units of squad (e.g. Half backs; Front row.); and individual positional skills development.
6. Make sure players and parents adhere to RFU and Club code of conduct.